THE STATE SENTINEL

Is published every Tuesday-Office on Washington Street, Southeast of the State House, directly opposite Armstrong's Hotel. TERMS .- Two dollars a year, always in advance. In no instance will more than one number be sent till the money is received. Subscribers will receive due notice a few weeks before the expiration of each year, and if the payment for a succeeding year be not advanced, the paper will be discontinued. This rule will be strictly adhered to in all cases. One dollar will be received for six months, and fifty cents for three months-always in advance. Five dollars will be received for three years; or, three papers will be sent one year for the same. ADVERTISEMENTS, will be inserted three times at one dollar a square, (250 ems) and be continued at the rate of 25 cents a square weekly. Quarterly advertisements inserted at $3 a square of 250 ems.

reasonable terms, which should always be made in writing as agreed upon. All advertisements from abroad must be accompanied by the cash, or no attention will be paid to them. fr Postage must be paid.

THE STUDENT OF BAGDAD.

BY THOMAS MOORE. From an unsublished Romance written in 1809-10. "What news from the Khalif's army !" asked the young student. His question was addressed to a venerable and grave politician, whom he found seated by his side, enjoying the cool of the evening, under a portico of the great College Al Mostanseriah at Bagdad, "Gloomy enough," answered the stranger; "our troops are flying in all directions from the conqueror, Holague," "And what, then, means those shouts and sounds of rejoicing through the good evening, and retired to his lodgings.

and had done honor to the Red Branch he bore on her hand upon his head, said, with a voice sweet as his shield at the battles of Al Mansurah and the the song of promise, Ashmun, in the latter of which the monarch himself was taken prisoner. When St. Louis, however, (having purchased back his sacred person from the and then, flying through the lime-tree walk, like an Mussolmans, at a price which few kings have been antelope, scarce touched the grass of the lawn, and worth to their subjects,) concluded a peace with Az- was once more in the gardens of the seraglio. zodin Aybec, and returned to France, young Niall, Oh, Plate!" exclaimed the student, as he rewho had rather more taste for learning than was turned thoughtfully to his lone pavilion, "if, as common among his brother Crusaders in general, re- thou sayest, whatever of good or lovely we see in Drew forth Jenovah's seer, from the devouring Nile! solved to visit the schools of the east, and to ex- this world be but the shadow, the softened reflecchange the pions task of murdering heathens for the tion of something glorious above us, let that smile somewhat more meful one of studying and improv- which I have just seen be the exemplar of all my

"Put up those books," said the student to his thus peeping over my shoulder !" Arab servant, "and meet me early in the morning at Masud's villa." This villa was a small rural re- INFERIORITY OF THE SONS OF CELE- And for this deed alone our praise and love are thine. treat on the banks of the Tigris, which belonged to Masud, his venerable preceptor; and to which the vonth often fled, for coolness, during the saltry their fathers, has been often remarked, and the comnights of that climate. The sun had just set, and the modest Arabian justamines, which had kept the secret of their fragrance to themselves all day, were times, certainly argues little for the theory of herenow beginning to let the sweet mystery out, and make every passing breeze their confidant.* To some minds the hours of sunset brings a feeling of remarkable for intelligence, the son has seldom failsadness, and a Laplander might well be allowed a little pensiveness on such an occasion. But to judge er was undistinguished. We give some of the exby the gaiety with which he now rowed his boat down the Tigris, this was by no means one of Niail's weaknesses. Not that there was any thing beyond Anthony Cocke; she was skilled in many lanpleasant remembrances, to give his spirits such buoyancy at this moment; but his had ever been that rare and happy kind of imagination which retains the impressions of past pleasure, as the Bo- ter of Sir D. Falconer, President of the College of Perpetual preachers of an olden Truth, Lagra stone treasures up sunbeams.

He was now arrived in sight of the little villa of of Masud; and the mild moonlight that fell upon every object becalmed the whole scene into such bright and beautiful repose as gave a tone of softness even to the wild spirits of Niall. Not far beyond this villa was the palace of the Emir Al Omera, the most favorite counsellor of the Khalif, and chosen, like most other favorite counsellors, for his great zeal and courage in recommending measures which he saw his master had fully determined on, in his own august mind, already. But the chief point on which this Emir prided himself, was the superior excellence of his seragilo and his library, and it was acknowledged, indeed, that in all Bigdad, there was no such tasteful collector of beauties and books.

But whither is the youth directing his course! He has already passed the humble villa of Masud that the imagination can conceive, with energy and and is now gliding under the shadows of the Egyp-Al Omera's seraglio. Is it the wild beauty of the rior talent and discernment; by her advice, her son evening that tempts him so far ! or is he indulging in contemplation of the fair planet Venus, which is just now shining with that half-retired disk which, astronomers inform us, is the loveliest of all her Before these questions can be answered with any certainty, we must return to some important events left, not undesignedly, behind us.

In going up hill, says the poet Dante, the hinder foot should always be the firmer; and certainly, in the up-hill work of narrative, the hind foot of the story cannot be too firmly planted.

One morning during the Nevrouz, or Festival of the Spring, having risen with the sun and walked into the gay shining lawn that sloped from his study to the river. Ninll observed, along the grass which was still wet with the night dew, the prints of a foot ty; themselves behind. Surprised at this phenomenon, he followed the direction of the footsteps, and could track them up close to the lattice of a small pavilion where he frequently studied at night. From thence they returned, and continuing for sometime by the side of the river, were wholly lost at the enden of the seraglio.

the second time, the fair Haluta directed her course, with a beating heart, toward Masud's lawn. The has been grounded on it by some. In the room of attention of its readers to the admirable principle, on which tunate. Give up at once every idea of sectarian smart widow, thereby insinuating that she wished commentators. heat was excessive—every eye that could afford it the Wartburg, where he sat translating the Bible. it is founded," and the "ability" of its managers! John Bull organization—put down the federalists—put down to bury him; and doing divers other acts of which heat was excessive—every eye that could afford it was shut up in sleep, nor was there at that moment a single man of fashion awake in all Bagdad. The a single man of fashion awake in all Dagdad. The only sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness, as she passonly sounds that broke on the stillness are stillness. The laws was a faint the stillness are stillness as the laws was a faint the stillness are stillness. ed with languid step across the lawn, was a faint laugh, now and then, from a distant group of peas-trees, in the clear waters of the Tigris. She looked anxiously toward the pavilion-it was The deep basin, in which the stream thus hingered on its way, looked clear and motionless as a mirror: and by its side lay young Niall, in a light dreamy sleep, his cheek resting against the marble, whose pale, inanimate hue was contrasted strikingly with the fresh glow of his manly features. Haluta's

*Thus versified afterward in "Llalla Roohk:" "From plants that wake, when others sleep; From timid jesmine buds that keep Their fragrance to themselves all day, But when the sun-ight dies away, Let the delicious secret out To every breeze that roams about."

INDIANA

The Price of Freedom

Yearly advertisers will be accommodated on PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY.

Vol. I.]

INDIANAPOLIS.

SENTINEL

is Eternal Vigilance.

BY G. A. & J. P. CHAPMAN.

NOVEMBER 30, 1841.

the tree which formed the canopy of his resting | Pocanontas and other Poems, by L. H. Sigourney .-

He that was centent to look At the moonlight in the brook : To reward his humble view, Saw both brook and moonlight too. While the proud, aspiring elf, Who would view the moon himself, Fell into the brook before him, Ere he saw the moonlight o'er him. Do-t thou love a smile of joy? Seek it in the fountain, boy, Look not up, or those shall miss Present smile and future bliss, city !" "They are for our last defeat, which the | The rustling sound caused by Haluta, in placing Khall's minister (whom Aliah bless!) declares, as these verses, had somewhat loosened the bonds of he values his honor and place, was no defeat at all, sleep; and scarcely had she time to fly and hide but a victory. He has accordingly ordered the in- herself among the lime trees, when the young stuhabitants of Bagdad to rejoice, which they are now dent awoke. His first movement, on seeing the Her spirit-glance bespoke the daughter of a king. doing with the worst grace imaginable." "How tablets, was to look anxiously round for the writer wise are the descendants of Abbas!" thought the of them. But she was too well shaded within the youth to homself, "But," he resumed, "the Tartar foliage for even her bright eyes to betray her; and will soon be at your gites-does not the Khalif no sooner did she perceive that he had read the mean to arm the inhabitants!" "Allah forbid!" verses, and that obeying, almost unconsciously, exclaimed the old gentleman, who belonged to the their mandate, he bent his head down over the waestablished sect of the Sonnites-"what! trust a ter, then, with a palpitating heart, she stole from hair of our orthodox heads to fellows who dishelieve her concealment; and, stepping on a rustic bench Her head on his declines, her arms his neck enfold. the Chapter of the Blanket! You are a stranger, immediately behind him, looked down over the liyoung man, or you would have known us better!" quid mirror, with a smile, whose reflection, like The student, on this, wished the pious Sonnite a Greek fire, burned unquenchably though the very waters. The young student started with astonish-The name of this youth was Niall. He had left ment; and was just on the point of forgetting the Europe under the banners of the Saint King, Louis, | warning of the verses, when Haluta, gently laying |

> Look not up, or thou shalt miss Present smile and future bliss;

thoughts; and, as I gaze upon the passing stream of life, be it my lot to have always such bright eyes

BRATED MEN.

The inferiority of the sons of celebrated men to parative obscurity of the sons of Alexander, Cicero, Who led her train of playmates, day by day, Napoleon, Sheridan, Burke, and other leaders of the ditary genius. But it would seem that the degrees Whose generous hand vouchsafed its tireless aid of talent is much influenced by the mother has been To guard a nation's germ? Thine, time, besoic maid! ed of the possession of ability, even where the fath-

LORD BACON.-II is mother was daughter to Sir Or decking joyously Youth's blushing brow. guages, and translated and wrote several works; which displayed learning, acuteness, and taste.

HUME, the historian mentions his mother, daugh-Justice, as a woman of singular merit, and who, although in the prime of life, devoted herself entirely Sheridan was a woman of considerable abilities. It was writing a pamshiet in his defence, that first introduced her to And which with holy hope and joy we keep. Mr. Sheridan, afterwards her husband. She also Ye die in gorgeous beauty, and no more the flow'rs wrote a novel highly praised by Johnson.

Schiller.-His mother was an amiable woman; she had a strong relish for the beauties of nature, and was passionately fond of music and poetry. Schiller was her favorite child.

Goerne thus speaks of his parents :- I inherited from my father a certain sort of eloquence calculated to enforce my doctrines to my auditors; from my mother I derived the faculty of representing ail

LORD ERSKINE's mother was a woman of supe-

SIR WALTER SCOTT .- His mother Anne Ruther-

standing.

laugh, now and then, from a distant group of peasant girls who were taking advantage of that hour of repose to bathe under the shade of the tamarind trees, in the clear waters of the Tigris.

Iron food: there to se defore him some findeds, increased that without saving there could be form the partners and managers from food: there to se defore him some findeds, increased that without saving there could be form the partners and managers from food: there to se defore him some findeds, increasing there could be form to prove and the lish definable image, which he took for the evil one, to conditions, which the Pope approved and the lish definable image, which he took for the evil one, to conditions, which the Pope approved and the lish definable image, which he took for the evil one, to conditions, which the Pope approved and the lish definable image, which he took for the evil one, to conditions, which the Pope approved and the lish definable image, wh appeared. The spot still remains there, a curious responsibility; being well convinced that despite of every grading! Do so now. When your religious teach- learning or extraordinary power of perspectedly to savage climbs the tree, no article of capital, no ar-She looked anxiously toward the pavelion-it was now silent and empty; but a sort of instinct whisnow silent and empty; but a sort of instinct whispered to her to try the dark alley of lines on the apprentice can now tell us what we are to think of during the basest purposes. And is it to be enfollow them; but when they mingle in the turnoil rect and honest minds of all classes. No more is too, would never exist. To this end something pered to her to try the dark alley of lines on the right. This path opened upon a small lake which now lay basking in the full splendors of noon, while the verdure around it slept coolly under the shadthe verture around it stept coonly under the shad thing he will quail before exists not on this earth thomsele! If the law of England authorize this, it is most the legislature of Missouri, two members got into a laise, and permissions schemes of partialists and more an article of capital. —, Millis Political Economor. ows of the encircling trees. The source of this lake was a marble fountain, almost hidden among the lines, from which the water stole with a clear but loitering current, as if half afraid to encounter the sunshine that wantoned so boldly over the lake.

The source of this lake was a marble fountain, almost hidden among the lines, from which the water stole with a clear but loitering current, as if half afraid to encounter the sunshine that wantoned so boldly over the lake.

The source of this lines are the source of this lake was a marble fountain, almost hidden among the lake was a marble for the lake hidden among the lake was a marble for the lake hidden among the lake was a marble for the lake hidden among the lake was a marble for the lake hidden among the lake was a marble for the lake hidden among the lake was a marble for the lake business at Leipzig. I would go, though it rained spects their interest in them, be amenable only to the for- ahead," he eried; "give it to him-never mind the how he can directly advance that various and con- limit cabilities, turning, or other adults Dake George's for nine days running." - Carlyle's eign law, provided the associations to which they belong, Governor! he's no more than any other min in a flicting interests of somety. His daty is to establish and it has been mobed that even Queen Catherine Lectures on Heroes.

ed a pair of unusually fat chickens from a country test at home, but it is impotent in England. It may, if it heart beat high, as well with apprehension as with hope, while she wrote on a tablet the following them from a branch of them so fat. His reply was that he fed them with verses, and tremblingly hung them from a branch of the curve of the contain a seed.

Watches were first made in England. Watches were first made in and wet it up with cold sweet milk, and feed leber- our countrymen as have embasked in them would seem to ally, and your chickens will fatten as rapidly as can have but slender ground of complaint, should they be taught people have succeeded in damning the waters of the Alebe desired. There is a pleasure in carrying fat that they are responsible to our laws; that the law of a forpoultry to market; and all our farmers may enjoy made hable, in the event of the concern becoming bank, upt the pleasure, by following the above directions in to the utmost spilling of their fortunes for its liability to the that direction, and the neighborhood is said to abound in consciousness of well-doing is an ample reward - employment. How crude was the science of polifeeding.

A volume has just been published by the Brothers Harper, containing poems by Mrs. Sigourney, which have not hitherto been given to the public in a collected form, and some of which have never before been published. Among them is | constitute a quorum for doing business' the poem which gives its name to the volume, founded upon rescue by the humanity of the young daughter of Powhatan. | strute a quorum. The story is told with great sweetness and beauty of imagecident in the poem, will serve as a sample:

A forest-child, amid the flowers at play ! Her raven locks in strange profusion flowing; A sweet, wild girl, with eye of earnest ray,

And olive cheek, at each emotion glowing; Yet, whether in her gladsome frolic leaping, Or 'neath the greenwood shade unconscious sleeping, Or with light our her fairy pinnace rowing,

But he, that wily monarch, stern and old, Mid his grim chiefs, with barbarous trappings bright, That morn a court of savage state did hold. The sentenced captive see-his brow how white !

Stretch'd on the turf his manly form lies low, The war-club poises for its fatal blow, The death-mist swims before his darken'd sight;

"The child! what madness fires her? Hence! Depart Fly, daughter, fly! before the death-stroke rings; Divide her, warriors, from that English heart." In vain! for with convulsive grasp she clings;

She claims a pardon from her frowning sire; Her pleading tones subdue his gather'd ire; And so, uplifting high his feathery dart, The doating father gave the child her will,

And bade the victim live, and be his servant still, Know'st thou what thou hast done, thou dark-hair'd child ? jority of 123, 62-and "two-thirds" of 123 is 82. Of the IRELAND AND REPEAL.-The work goes gloriously on, What great events in thy compassion bung?

What prowess lurks beneath you aspect mild, And in the accents of that foreign tongue? As little knew the princes who descried A floating speck on Egypt's turbed tide,

And, yielding to an infant's tearful smile, In many a clime, in many a battle tried, By Turkish sabre and by Moorish spear; 'Mid Afric's sands, or Russian forest wide,

A bulrush-ark the matted reeds among,

Romantic, bold, chivalrous, and sincere, Keen-eyed, clear minded, and of purpose pure, Dauathess to rule, or patient to endure, Was he whom thou hast rescued with a tear: Thou wert the saviour of the Saxon vine,

Nor yet for this alone shall history's scroll Embalm thine image with a grateful tear; For when the grasp of famine tried the soul, When strength decay'd, and dark despair was near,

O'er rock, and stream, and wild, a weary way, Their baskets teeming with the golden ear?

AUTUMN WOODS, Glorious Preachers! Ye are fading now How softly from your leaves the greenness flies! No longer greeting with their bloom our eyes, Yet beautiful amid your slow decay, With varied colors, sad, or dark, or bright. Ting'd with the morning ray, or evenings fading light, In pomp and majesty ye pass away!

How silently ye symbol our decay, That when we too, like you, shall pass away, We shall again renew our trustful youth.

And beauty's voice finds ever answer deep, Within these souls, which we would fain guide right, Which ever turn, like flowers, unto the light,

Bloom modestly beneath your spreading leaves; But through your boughs the night wind slowly grieves Where once it play'd, through the long summer hours,

With budding youth, the spring may come again ; With newer beauty, flowers renew their bloom, Freshly upspringing from their verdant tomb; But to cold hearts they too will preach in vain.

And they who wander through your paths unmoved, In vain will stand in temples made with hands; In vain will virtue seek, in gown and bands;

For your mild teachings they have never lov'd.

the following, which will be read with interest :-

from food; there rose before him some hideous, in- knew whether it ever had any paid up capital-and suppos- the Third offered liberty to Ireland upon certain Democracy.-It is one of the beautiful features of sufficiently evident that without saying there could restrict their operations to foreign countries. But should night!" My friends, you have the anecdote; I leave strict justice in all social relations. With the Whig, herself could not command sallad for discovery these associations send agents here, and open offices and carry MEAL AND MILK FOR CHICKENS .- We purchase d fferent; the Legislature of Pennsylvania may be omnipo- and unanimous applause. Indian meal and milk. Merely take uncooked meal are they in practice but Earlish companies? And such of British subjects.

THE VETO ANALYZED.

Let us bring the Veto, by way of experiment, to the test the Constitution:

and formalities of the Constitution; and nothing remains to more, as we learn from a sublime passage in the lars, and straitway the copyright of the publisher give it the sanction of a law, but the approval of the Presi- midst of one of these money appeals which runs in was infringed by a musical pirate, who issued an dent. And what now becomes his duty that House in which it shall have originated."

tions at large on their Journal, and proceed to reconsider it, and then net accordingly."

on the Journal of each House respectively." House by barely a majority of the "quorum for doing business," provided it is "approved" by the President: and it send these godly ones, who have invited you to such plause, and an encore of "Cherry Ripe" was inwill also become a law by having been passed by a majority a pleasing stretch of the imagination, to something sisted upon. "Silence in the court!" however, of two-thirds of this "quorum," in spite of all the President's in the way of filthy lucre, to be by them spent some. from the clerk, soon restored order, and the composmembers of each House in the one case, and barely onethird in the other. Thus: Of the House, a majority of 212 is 122; and a ma-

Senate, a quorum is 26; and a majority is 11; and "two- Peaceably-legally-but with increasing energy, Mr. thirds" of the "quorum," 18. votes of 18 Senators, and 82 Representatives-one-third of countrymen. Its moral power is beginning to be felt, and so defectively that a quantity of rats got in and ate So a bill, ofter it is vetoed, may become a law by the each of the Houses,

At one of the great meetings of the Irish Catho-

by Mr. McGillis, of Missouri:

AN IRISHMAN'S SPEECH. lies in New York city, held to repudiate the dicta- For Ireland, lion-hearted as she is, cannot cope single- themselves, gain admission, and get into the said torial interference of the Whig Bishop, Hughes, in handed with her powerful oppressor. Weakened as she barn, &c ; and then it requires in the interrogatories political questions, the following speech was made is by the most miscrable of all slavery systems, absentee- to "said bill," that the defendant should, in his an-Mr. McGillis, of Missouri, was introduced to holds, she cannot hope to achieve her independence yet mice, (ringing the changes as above.) did get in, the meeting by the chairman. Though personally by a military movement. The sagacity of her great pat- and eat up and consume, any and what quantity of unknown to the meeting, he said, he had the origi- riot has long perceived this. He impresses it upon them the corn and grain therein being; and if not, why nal sin of being born an Irishman. His father was in every speech. Reason-discussion-agitation, are the a United Irishman. His uncle had suffered a politi- instruments be employs; and at this moment, under the cal martyrdom in that oppressed land, and owing to influence of his counsels, Ireland stands more united, but the unhappy divisions of that country, his cousin more resolved to achieve her independence, than she ever sat on the jury that condemned him. Such were has been. That she will effect it and that in five years tarch's time was very defferent from those of ours the effects of disunion among Irishmen at home .- or less-there can be no doubt. She has one great strug- where the greatest part of our youth is spent in Such would be the consequences here (applause) .- gle to make in co-operation with English parriots-the learning the words of dead languages. The Gre-His family having been the victims of oppression in overthrow of the Peel ministry and the advent to power cians, who thought all barbarians but themselves, Ireland, he continued, he had come to America when a boy, and found an asylum in the west. He was hungry, and Americans fed hun; naked, and was hungry, and Americans fed him; naked, and land will follow in the same manner that other great pri- by moral precepts, to the service of the public and they clothed him; a stranger, and they took him in- vileges which she has wrested from Parliament of late private offices of virtue. By this liberal sort of edu-Though an Irishman and a Catholic, he had met with years, followed the revolution of parties in England. In cation, study was far from being a burden to them, nothing but kindness and hospitality. (Cheers) He this great struggle, Ireland is cheered on by a large major- in a short time it became a habit; and philosophihad had the honor to be in political life, notwith- ity of the American people. Repeal is a favorite a watch- cal questions and criticisms of humanity were their standing his birth and his religion. It was never word in the United States-at least with the democratic usual recreations at their meals. Boys lived as the asked him, of what land he was a native, or in what party-as it is in Ire and. Repeal clubs-repeal associ-better sort of men do now, and their conversation manner he worshipped God! Fellow citizens, such ations-repeal parties are rapidly organizing themselves; was so well bred and manly, that they did not is the liberality and kindness that I have experi- and not a movement is made across the water for the lienced. Will you destroy this feeling! (Cries of beration of that gallant, but down-trodden people, which No! No!) Then crush this spirit of discord in the does not find a kindred response in the hearts of millions grew up, but slid easily into it, and found no alterbud. Make an abortion of this monster which im. in this free country. To use the eloquent language of cation in their company .- Dryden. prudent zeal and unprincipled demagoguism is try. O'Connell, "the American cock crowing on this side of ing to bring to life. I had the honor to be appoint. the Atlantic shall awaken Ireland from her dreamy ed by Andrew Jackson (hurra!) United States At- shumbers, and bid her arise to enjoy a day of light and to notice the different articles which have been torney for the State of Missouri. That nomination happiness."-Natchez Free Trader. was confirmed to me by Martin Van Buren-(cheers.) There was no influence of birth or religion in thisno proscription here; and so it has ever been with tions of this office may be conjectured from the effect in various systems; and it is interesting as the democratic party. (True.) Democracy asks number of men employed. There are $24 letter re- showing how much the mind sympathizes with the no questions of birth or creed of those who are in- ceivers, and 724 letter carriers. Including clerks boby. Hallar drank plentifully of cold water when vested with the broad mantle of American citizen. and others directly employed, not less than 1993 per- he wished for great activity of the brain; Fox for ship. (Cheers.) These commissions, from these sons are connected with the London Post Office. the same purpose used brandy. The stimulant of two great pillars of democracy, I feel are the best. The letter receivers pass about certain districts of Newton and Hobbs were the fumes of tobacco; legacy I can leave to my pisterity, and they are the city, and receive letters in a bag, through an op- those of Pope and Fontenelle, strong coffee. Docthe best proof I can offer of the broad and liberal ening similar to the one at the post office. For each tor Johnson, at one period of his life was a great U. S. BANK-LIABILITY OF BRITISH STOCKHOLD- feeling of the democratic party. (Cheers.) I may letter the receiver gets a penny, and the bag cannot wine drinker; but, in the latter part of it, found say that I am a living example of democratic libe- be opened except by those authorised by the Gov. strong tea a substitute. Don Juan is said to have An article exceedingly interesting to the creditors of the rality; and shall this feeling be destroyed! (Cries ernment. The postage on a letter weighing half an been written under the influence of gin and water, Thompson -Mrs. Thompson was a woman of United States Bank, extracted from a late edition of Me- of no, no, never!) Well, what will be the effect of ounce is one penny. Every additional half ounce is and it is reported that a certain legal lord, of great uncommon natural endowments, with a warmth and Culloch, by Professor Vethake, was recently published in any portion of the citizens of this land arraying charged with an additional half-penny. This is the learning and talent, plies hard with port when he vivacity of imagination scarcely inferior to her son. the Charleston Mercury. In reference to the liability of the themselves under the banner of a religious faith, rate of postage to every part of Great Britain. News. wishes to shine. Pitt was a great grinker of wine:

father was thought very dull.

Napoleon's father was a man of no peculiar mind, but his mother was distinguished for her understanding.

Standing.

Standi We do not know how the existing law may be interpreted; the liberation of Ireland, his first effort has been to try leave the General Post Office in London daily, ducing the Roman pointing, as used in Italy; and Lord Mornington, the father of the Wellesleys, but if they are protected the sooner it is changed the better. heal her unhappy divisions. How did you first fall ! Sundays excepted, at S. P. M., and all are expectwas an excellent musician, and no more, but his liad the United States Bank not opened an agency here, the lady was remarkable for her intellectual superiori- case would have been different; but having opened an office, and transacted a large amount of business in London, it has become to all intents and purposes an English estab-The father of the Emmets, in Ireland, was a bab- tishment; and the partners belonging to it in England, must, ruled and oppressed it ever since, and all from the wagon a few days since, and had the curiosity to choose, institute trading companies, with a responsibility so great, that no person, pearance in England. It was in the year 1563 that one in her arms, whom Joseph Sturge saw in jail and Mr. Horn was summoned as a witness. While Here ends the duty of the President; but not so the duty at Washington last spring-in all probability free on the stand, the old tune from which the composer of the two Houses. And now, what becomes the duty of the -but soon to be sold into hopeless slavery for their was supposed to take the new one, was produced in so small and exquisitely formed, that he could have bler, but the mother was a singularly intelligent perone should think, be amenable to the English law, and not disunion of her sons. Hold together, and you are count | the colon was a refinement, showing that not know how rarely immortals leave traces of themselves behind. Surprised at this phenomenon, and the most striking abilities.

LUMBERING ON THE PENORSC T .- Some of the Maine timber of the very best description.

No. 19.

Some of the most striking abilities.

Some of the most striking abilities.

The fate of two of her sons was unhappy, able to the democratic faith, for necessarily follow that any institution, though consisting there is more to come.

Some of the most striking abilities.

Some of the most striking abilities.

The fate of two of her sons was unhappy, able to the democratic faith, for necessarily follow that any institution, though consisting there is more to come.

But the semicolon was a Latin delicacy, which was a latin delicacy and the control of the most striking abilities. eign State, even though it were not generally known that left the democratic ranks has fallen to the earth-he ing reasons for breaking off the match, were urged the obtuse English typographer resisted. So late SHERIDAN'S father was a weak creature, as his a was chartered, as the foreign law might require this to be has crawled upon it a caterpillar, and if he rose at by the defendant :- Amongst the items of his diswhole career showed; the genius descended from divulged, might open places of business in London and Liv- all has risen as a Whig butterfly. (Cheers.) Fellow approbation were Miss Campion's using the word any such innovator; the Bible of 1502, though printerpool, and after getting some hundreds of thousands of pounds into debt, might suspend payments, and laugh at the pounds into debt, might suspend payments, and laugh at the wife, "rise," or raise ed with appropriate accuracy, is without a semieredulous dupes they had reduced to beggary and ruin. It cratic party. Who have respected our rights as ed, employing the word "what" unnecessarily; tell colon; but in 1633, its full rights are established by trance of a deep and dark wood which divided the Levner's Courage. Lather's defiance of the would be, no doubt, streamously affirmed of such an institugrounds of the Masud's villa from the walled gar- "devils" in Worms was not a mere boast, as the like tion, that it had a paid-up capital amounting perhaps to sev- party. Who have opposed you, who would oppress upright plane, with the intention of effending her, no logy of the four points of punctuation, it is evimight be if now spoken. It was not a faith of Lu- eral millions sterling: that it was a " highly respectable as- you, who have always excited unjust and unfeeling as she happened to have a musical instrument of the dent that Shakspeare could never have used the ther that there were devi s, spiritual denizens of sociation, and conducted by gentlemen of the "highest char- prejudices against you! The Federalists—the latter description; for "ticking, pinching, and box- semicolon; a circumstance which the profound ther that there were devis, spiritual denizens of the probably, too, a balance sheet would be occasionally the fair Haluta directed her course.

The was but a little more than mid-day when, for the pit, continually besetting men. Many times in his writings this turns up; and the most small sneer portion of the press would not fail to direct the particular to direct the particular to discovere that there were devis, spiritual denizens of the prediction; and box semigolou; a circumstance which the probably, too, a balance sheet would be occasionally the pit, continually besetting men. Many times in put forth demonstrating its flourishing situation; and a colors would not fail to direct the particular to discovere the parti sown, prevent our victory in a cri-is like this. Do found for the plaint if £1,500 damages and costs. Fixed is labor. Production of necessity begins with on business with the United Kingdom, the case is altogether you to make your own application. (Enthusiastic it is not so. His system of politics is a system of the Kingdom, the case is altogether you to make your own application. intermedding. It compels him to take all the busi- lands. About the same time the articloke, the > guash in the disputed territory, so as to turn them into the man does also good to homself, not only in the con- ed near London, anno 1633, but afterwards demol-Seneca.

DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES.

A sample and frugal Government, confined within strict Constitutional limits. No public debt, either by the General Government, or by the States, except for objects of urgent No assumption by the General Government of the debts of the States, either directly, or indirectly by a distribution of the proceeds of the public lands, No extensive system of Internal Improvement by the General Government, or by the States.

A constitutional barrier against improvident The honest payment of our debts and the sacred preservation of the public faith. A gradual return from an extensive credit sys-

No national bank to swindle the laboring pop-No connexion between the Government and bank-

No grants of exclusive charters and privileges, by special legislation, to banks. No connexion between Church and State.

No proscription for honest opinions. Fostering aid to public education.

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED AND POWERFULLY IMAGE. MUSICAL .- An amusing incident in the life of NATIVE. - The Standard, a pure, unadulterated abo. Horn, the celebrated vocalist, is recorded by the "Article 1. Section V. A majority of each [House] shall lition paper, just gasping out its last breath, teems "New York Sunday Morning News." It seems with agonized calls for "money." This complaint that during the great popularity of the song of The Senate consists of 52 members, and a majority of this singularly affects all these enterprises. They want "Cherry Ripe," in London, some sapient critic made one of the most interesting circumstances recorded in our number is therefore 27. The House consists of 242 members, hundreds and thousands of dollars, and when those the discovery that the words were by an old master history or in any other, the capture of Captain Smith, and his and a majority is consequently 122. These majorities con- are had, the only result is the more to awake the (Herrick,) and forthwith an outery was raised that Any bill therefore, passed by an affirmative vote of 14 cry of the horse-leech-it is still "give, give." Put the music was of a date equally ancient. A melory. The following stanzas, which relates the principal in- Schators, and 62 Representatives, possesses all the requisites they do not stop at asking this-they want much dy was found that resembled it in several particu-"Article I. Section VII. If he APPROVE he shall sign it, but if NOT he SHALL return it with his objections to "Think of that mother with several children- chaser of the melody commenced a suit for damages "Art. 1. Sec. VII. [That House] shall enter the object juil fees. Friend, imagine those children yours evidence, and Mr. Horn saw it for the first time. He declared it to be a very different thing from his If after such reconsideration two-thirds of that House shall Now that may be called a Demosthenian touch, own melody-in short, quite another affair; but as agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the ob- "Think of that mother with several children." Yes | neither court nor jury were musicians, it was diffijections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be re- think of them all; dark in hue and comical in as. cult to make them understand the essential differconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that House, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both but several children, and then—then friend "imagine" dilemma Mr. Horn was requested to sing both to the of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered those children yours-whow ! just imagine that, and jury, which he did to the delight of all present, and see how you'll feel on the subject of breakfast, af. the publisher consequently cast his opponent, and Thus it appears by the Constitution, that a bill may be- terwards. Think of several little niggers, standing heavy damages were awarded in the case, when the come the supreme law of the land, after having passed each in that tender relation and then see if you can't whole audience burst out in the most vociferous aphow, it matters not much in what way. Reader, er and the other parties left the halls of justice on Thus a law may be passed by barely one-fourth of the the subject is before you, see what you can do with the best possible terms with themselves and all the rest of the world.

> BILLS IN CHANCERY .- There is a humorous account current among the profession, of a bill filed O'Connell is pressing this important question up n his against an architect, for the building of a granary England is already quaking under it. All the great move- up the corn. It first charges that divers rats, to wit, ments for the emancipation of Ireland, have heretofore 100,000 rats, 100,000 mice, 100,000 grey rats, 100, failed, because the high-spirited leaders have committed 000 black rats, 100,000 white mice, and 100,000 themselves too soon, and relied more upon the appeal to dormice, through divers holes, chinks, crannies, aparms than on any other power. This was a great error, ertures, and other places, did penetrate, insinuate ism; divided by the interests which English proprietors swer, more particularly answer and set forth whethcreate; and garrisoned with British troops in all her strong er any, and what number of rats, mice, and dor-

THE DEAD LANGUAGES. - The customs of Plu-

STIMULANTS OF GREAT MEN.-It is interesting taken by eminent men, as stimulants to the mental faculties. It is interesting, as showing how dia-LONDON POST OFFICE. - The extent of the opera- metrically opposite means may produce the same BOERHAAVE'S mother acquired a high knowledge Brilish stockholders for the debts of the Bank, we extract and marching to the polls as a political faction! papers are not subject to postage, provided they are Sheridan, also, was fond of his bottle. Dr. Paris What would be the consequence! Look at the his- mailed within eight day's after they are printed, tells us, that when Mr. Dunning wished to make "If the Bank of the United States be really insolvent, and tory of the land of our birth. Sectarian divisions, The franking privilege is entirely abolished, as an extraordinary display of eloquence, he always ford, daughter of an able physician, and teacher of unable to meet its engagements, a question will most likely the disunion of her own citizens, has placed her it should be in this country, or materially restricted. Dut a blister on his chest a few hours before he was medicine, was a woman of marked talents, while the arise as to the liability of the holders of Bank stock resident under the yoke of oppression under which she is The average number of letters daily posted in to speak, in order that it might irritate the brain

Punctuation .- Caxton had the merit of intro-the hands, and nothing else, of the laborer. It is ness of society under his especial care, and invests aprient and the damask rose made their first apthe year 15:0 combes were introduced; before which time Queen Elizabeth, on public occasions, tics, even in that late age.